D. Scott Vossler Takes the Helm as President of WCS Construction, LLC

Washington, DC (July, 2017) – Earlier this month, D. Scott Vossler was appointed the new President of WCS Construction, LLC, following the retirement of Jim Anglemeyer. WCS Construction, LLC is a DC-based general contractor, with 84 employees and over 146 million in business last year. Scott joined WCS Construction, LLC in 2014 as Vice President. A University of Florida graduate with over 30 years of experience, Scott has overseen and managed mixed-use, commercial, multi-family residential, governmental, educational, retail, and health care projects. He has served in prominent roles at business associations, has been a guest speaker at universities and leadership development groups, and has volunteered in numerous charitable outreach activities. He served as the 2009 Chairman of the Board of Associated Builders and Contractors Metro Washington Chapter, and also served as the Chairman of the Board of CraftMasters Training Trust in 2010. He is currently serving on the Steering Committee for the Skyland Workforce Center, and on the General Contractor Counsel for Associated Builders and Contractors, Virginia Chapter.

“I am honored to have the opportunity to lead the team and am looking forward to making the company stronger,” said Scott, about his appointment. Chris Smith, Chairman and CEO of WC Smith said. “I am confident that Scott will be able to lead WCS Construction, LLC successfully in the next phase of growth.”
